

20 Sep 2018 | News

QUOTED. Sept. 20, 2018. Benita Pearson.

by

A lawsuit over negative pressure wound-therapy devices ended in a win for plaintiff KCI Medical Services after an Ohio federal judge ordered Healthcare Essentials Inc. to pay $645m for alleged theft. See what Judge Benita Pearson wrote about the case here.

"Due to defendants' discovery abuses, it is impossible to know how many [VAC System Units that Healthcare Essentials] stole, from which sources they received the VACs, which model VACs they stole, what condition the VACs were in when they were stolen, or how many customers plaintiff lost due to defendants' fraudulent enterprise." –Benita Pearson, judge, US District Court for the Northern District of Ohio

- Find out more: KCI Awarded \$645M In Stolen Device Case

Click here for a free trial of Medtech Insight