Siemens Healthineers AG revealed its new 'one-stop shop' system for stroke at the annual European Congress of Radiology (ECR) in Vienna. See what Siemens Global Product Manager, Peter Hildebrandt, said about it here.

"With the Artis icono, you can put the patient directly on the table and do the diagnostic part of this angiography and then proceed to treatment directly without delay. Studies have proven that you can save up to one hour by doing this one-stop shop approach." –Peter Hildebrandt, global product manager, Siemens Healthineers
