

22 Oct 2020 | News

QUOTED. 22 October. Robert Ford.

by

Abbott reported third-quarter 2020 global sales of $8.9bn, driven by its strong position in COVID-19 tests. See what Abbott's CEO Robert Ford said about it here.

"With a vaccine, you might see a trend of a little bit of a decrease in PCR testing I think and maybe an increase in antibody testing, but I think the rapid testing is not going to go away like that." – Robert Ford, CEO, Abbott

- Find out more: Abbott's 3Q \$8.9BN Sales Beat Wall Street Consensus, Medtech Sales Up 3.4%

Click here for a free trial of Medtech Insight