

04 Feb 2021 | Analysis

Device Week, 4 February 2021 – SPACs In Medtech; Manus' Parkinson's Pen; TAVR During COVID

by Reed Miller

This week's podcast includes an update on the growing trend of "blank check" companies taking medtech companies public, a spotlight on Manus' pen that can diagnose Parkinson's disease, and a look at how the pandemic is impacting valve replacements.

Listen to the podcast via the player below:

Click here to explore this interactive content online ✎

Medtech Insight articles addressing topics in this episode:

- Blank Check Companies' Hunt For Innovative Medtech Start-Ups To Heat Up Further, Experts Predict
- Start-Up Spotlight: Manus Neurodynamica Hopes To Write The End Of Traditional Parkinson's Diagnosis
- Edwards Keeps TAVR Going During COVID-19 Surge