

17 Sep 2021 | News

QUOTED. Scott Whitaker.

by

Industry representatives like AdvaMed president Scott Whitaker have criticized the US Medicare agency's decision to withdraw a rule that would give temporary automatic coverage to breakthrough devices.

“It’s unfortunate for patients across the country that the administration has decided to reject a rule to allow Medicare patients immediate access to breakthrough medical innovations.” – Scott Whitaker, president, AdvaMed

- Find out more: CMS Dashes Industry Hopes For MCIT Rule Any Time Soon

Click here for a free trial of Medtech Insight